

AGENDA

Pacific Summit - 2019

8.00am	Registration open
9.00am	Pōwhiri, Te Puia Kapu tī
10.30am	Welcome and Introductions Russell Harrison - Broadcaster
10.50am	Matauranga - delivers an account of Māori conceptual understandings of natural living systems. First written in Māori language for the Summit, the account is translated to English for presentation. This account is a world first and deliberate attempt to accurately transcribe indigenous technical knowledge for the purposes of hard-wiring it into circular economy development. Presenting both authentic indigenous technical knowledge (mātauranga Māori) and related opinion, the aim of this session is to assist participants to contextualise and understand points of connection and divergence when comparing mātauranga Māori with the present linear and future circular economy models. Teina Boasa-Dean - Māori Environmental Activist Leilani Unasa - Systems Design Lead, The Cause Collective Chris Kutarna - Fellow of the Oxford Martin School Joe Iles - Editor, Ellen MacArthur Foundation Panel: The need for new narratives Teina Boasa-Deane Leilani Unasa Chris Kutarna Panel: What Mātauranga means for business Kerensa Johnston, - Chief Executive, Wakatū Incorporation Traci Houpapa - Chair, Federation of Māori Authorities Gina Mohi - Te Tatau o Te Arawa
12.30pm	Lunch
1.30pm	Materials - how can we apply experience and inspiration from the Pacific, where plastics pollution is complex, urgent and visible, to design a better system in which plastics never become waste? Ross Stevens - School of Design, Victoria University of Wellington Eline Boon - Research Analyst for New Plastics Economy, Ellen MacArthur Foundation Anthony Talouli - Pollution Adviser, Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme Lisa Martin - General Manager Sustainability, Sanford

AGENDA

Pacific Summit - 2019

	Panel: The Materials Innovation Opportunity <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Kiri Reihana, Kairangahau, Manaaki Whenua● Kate Bezar - Director, The Better Packaging Co.● Emma Harding - Risk & Compliance Manager - Sustainability & Circular Economy, Fuji Xerox
3.00pm	Afternoon tea
3.30pm	Manifestos - Pacific states are geographically dispersed and culturally diverse, yet these are the very features that unite them. How can leaders harness this role and take collective action towards a shared vision for an economy that works in the long term? Andrew Morlet - CEO, Ellen MacArthur Foundation Leota Kosi Latu - Director General, Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme Councillor Penny Hulse - Waitākere Ward Panel: A Platform in the Pacific <ul style="list-style-type: none">● Dr Ross Lambie - Chief Economist, Australian Government● Leota Kosi Latu - Director General, Secretariat of the Pacific Regional Environment Programme● Steve Chadwick - Mayor of Rotorua
4.30pm	Summary and closing remarks Vicky Robertson - Chief Executive, Ministry for the Environment Joe Iles - Editor, Ellen MacArthur Foundation
5.00pm	Free time or guided tour at Te Puia
6.30pm	Summit dinner at Te Puia Kapa Haka performance